3. ASI does not guarantee the health of a child and strongly urges all adoptive families consult a physician regarding the child's health status and available health information. Understand that at some future point a child may develop a physical, mental health, behavioral, or developmental issue. The adoptive family acknowledges this, accepts these risks, and feels prepared to assist the child if this does occur.

____ No ____ Yes

PROVISION OF BIRTHPARENT EXPENSES

I/We understand many birthmothers request financial assistance to sustain themselves during pregnancy with short term follow up after placement. Some birthmothers ask for financial assistance during pregnancy, some ask for their expenses to be reimbursed after placement. ___Yes ___No

If Yes, what is the extent of the assistance you can provide? (assistance may include, but not limited to: rent, utilities, transportation, food, maternity, phone, unpaid medical, medications, etc.)

I/We are aware that a birthmother can change her mind at any point prior to or after delivery. How would you and your spouse/partner deal with a situation where you had provided expenses and the birthmother changed her mind about her plan for adoption? How will you deal with this?

I/We are aware and are willing to assume the risk that not every birthmother is 100% honest in her desire to develop a plan for adoption and may have ulterior motives in seeking financial assistance. Should this occur how will you deal with this?

How do you plan to pay ASI expenses, birthmother expenses (if appropriate), attorney's fees, and any other adoption related expenses?

It is not uncommon for an adoptive family to experience one or more failed adoptions. If this is your experience, how will you deal with this? Explain.

I/WE certify that all the provided information is accurate and understand that any misrepresentation will be cause for disqualifications from ASI. I/WE have researched adoption and understand the risks associated with this process and further understand that ASI does not guarantee successful placement.
